HENRY WATTERSON

President Taft, Secretary of War Stimson, and Senator Bacon Other Speakers.

Definite word is expected tomorrow from Henry Watterson in answer to in-vitation to speak at the memorial exercises for Major Archibald Butt to be conducted May 5 at 3 p. m., at the New National Theater. Acceptances of invitations have already been received from President Taft, Secretary Stimson and Senator Bacon. The speakers' list will not include more than the above four, according to announcement today, except that Carter B. Keene, grand master of Temple Lodge, A. F. and A. M., which will conduct the exercises, will be heard briefly.

The music at the exercises probably will be given by military bands, arrangements for which are being made by a special committee of which Percy S. Foster is chairman.

According to present plans army officers will attend the exercises in a body and reservation of seats will be made also for members of the Masonic fraternity. The attendance, according to the universal expectation, will be greater than the theater can accommodate, but no larger auditorium can be secured in Washington.

If Mr. Watterson can come he will talk of Major Butt as the newspaper man of his acquaintance. It will be Senator Bacon's lot to speak of Major Butt in relation to his early life in Georgia. Secretary Stimson will dwell upon Major Butt's efficient record as an army officer and President Taft will tell of him as an intimate friend and as-

Much discussion took place in Wash-Much discussion took place in Washington today of the suggestion that a memorial be erected in Washington to Major Butt and other men who lost their lives in the Titanic wreck. It seems certain that if Congress should fail to act the matter will be undertaken by private subscription. It is generally felt that the memorial will have more dignity if it is created by official act of the nation through Congress, and private activities will not be undertaken unless the Senate and House should deem it not wise for them to act.

A call for a meeting of citizens in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce to be held Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock is being considered and the promoters of this meeting declare that the call will be circulated tomorrow. If this is done and the meeting held a temporary organization will be effected at the time and the memorial matter generally talked over.

Ainey to Speak.

Congressman W. D. B. Ainey of Pennsylvania will speak at the Gospel Mission tonight at 8 o'clock. Capt. Charles H. Stanley, known as the "converted actor," will sing. Between 7 and 8 o'clock a free supper service will be held in charge of Superintendent H. W. Kine.

Mrs. Helien later identified the ring and opera glasses at Police Headquarters. held yesterday. After looking over a toy shovel handed him, Mr. Sherman exclaimed he wanted a real shovel, and he took one from the hands of a workman. He was about to remove his coat to expediate the operation, when he re ceived reassuring information that it was not up to him to fill the entire excavation. Mr. Sherman kept his coat on, but he threw in considerable of the
